Strengthen Results

The Future of Leadership Development

These coach-assisted engagements are customized for each individual, and help leaders identify and instill the micro-behaviors critical for accelerating macro-organizational success.

Unlike traditional 360s, the R360 helps leaders calibrate the key behaviors that build trust and relationships quickly using a proprietary, non-anonymous tuning instrument.

This 1:1 feedback solution has been used by thousands of leaders around the globe, and produces the most actionable and non-judgmental behavioral data on the market.

The R360 Effect

Whether you need to quickly establish credibility with a new team or deal with rapid change, R360 offers an effective solution that strengthens your key relationships and helps you lead your team to peak performance.

- ✓ Accelerated trust building
- ✓ Extraordinary communication agility
- ✓ Clarity on the specific behaviors that will get results
- ✓ Team success fueled by open dialogue
- ✓ Sustainable performance improvement
